- Fundraiser update
 - Approval for more than one
 - the by-laws used to state that the PTC was only allowed to do one fundraiser per year, but that is from when we were 3 schools
 - just need to keep Dr. Corlett in the loop
 - Run dates by Dr. Corlett when we decide.
 - applebee's night
 - 20% back of profit
 - Email Mrs. MacDonald for schedule of fundraiser nights
 - Charlotte will email MacDonald about Applebees options
 - plant sale
 - Hospital has done a Mother's day flower sale for years, the vendors gives a flat price and gives an idea of what to mark it up as
 - good idea, but might be too much work for the short time we have to put it together
 - Little Caesar kits
 - Cookie dough
 - Spirit sale
 - blanket order form that can be sent home with envelopes
 - Katie or Peggy Smith has Brian LaCombs information - Charlotte will get
 - hoodie, long sleeve tee, short sleeve tee, sweatpants
 - gideon soft blend was used before

- What kind of lead time from vendor
 - Forms could go out beginning of March to get back by spring break
 - start a google drive of fundraiser ideas?
- o Shoe drive
 - collect new or gently used shoes and group pays by the pound
 - high manpower workload
- o Polar Bear Plunge
 - We would need to be non-profit to be the recipient of proceeds
- o Note for next year school fundraiser
 - maybe go back to individual prizes
 - stix donated and ice cream party from house of flavors
 - connections at Stix? Who has that? last year 3 or 4 people formed their own committee to organize fundraiser
 - assembly very important in kick off of fundraiser
 - raffle next year?
 - do kids still get something?
 - get donations over the summer for raffle
 - auction of items the same as gambling?
- Non-profit status
 - o Different EIN, Ludington Elementary School PTC
 - o our current EIN can't be used because it is affiliated with the school
 - o need a 1010
 - o looked at legal zoom, access is the same as PTC Email
 - o Save $230 a year, wouldn't give a complannee package, they put taxes together for annual report
